

National Institute of Justice

Award Title: Multimodal Biometric Fusion with Predictive Quality Metrics

Award Description:

This project will investigate how multiple biometric technologies can together be made a more effective tool to address many criminal justice needs. GE is developing quality metrics that are predictive of biometric matching algorithms to address the challenge. The predictive quality metrics will allow for future development and evaluation of technologies for use by local law enforcement agencies to combat terrorism and other types of crimes.

ca/ncf

Awardee Name: General Electric

Award Number: 2007-MU-CX-K001

Solicitation Title: National Institute of Justice
Continuation Awards

Fiscal Year: 2007

Amount: $499,893.00

Earmark: No

Recovery Act: No

State/Territory: NY

County: Schenectady

Congressional District: 21

Award Status: Closed